MARKETING YOUR BUSINESS TO AUSTRALIA'S RETAIL LIQUOR INDUSTRY

AUSTRALIAN LIQUOR STORES ASSOCIATION

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

The Australian Liquor Stores Association (ALSA) Annual National Conference, now in its 17th year is the 'retail liquor industry benchmark' and is considered a 'must attend' event for liquor retailers, owners, managers and staff.

Delegates have the opportunity to liaise with corporate partners and suppliers while enjoying a week filled with fun, relaxation and entertainment. Guest speakers include business experts, key liquor industry experts and suppliers, and well known celebrities and fellow liquor retailers.

All come together to share their wealth of knowledge and reveal strategies to help grow business and profits, along with forums to discuss current and future challenges facing the industry.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

The ALSA Conference opens on Sunday with a Welcome Dinner, where everyone gets to meet their fellow delegates.

The daily Business Sessions will provide delegates with information vital to help them embrace changes in the retail liquor industry and increase the profitability of their business.

Optional Workshops on both Monday and Wednesday will provide important information on specific areas of running their businesses, and on Monday afternoon we host the ever popular Networking Cocktails.

The ALSA Expo & Trade Day on Tuesday afternoon allows delegates to have direct interaction with industry suppliers, take advantage of exclusive deals and offers and be briefed on their latest products.

After the three (3) business days conclude, the ALSA Gala Dinner on Wednesday night is where delegates can unwind, let their hair down and reflect on the week that was with old and new friends and colleagues. Some serious prizes are also an integral part of the night's festivities!

Thursday is the final day of the conference, where delegates choose to play in the Golf Day, or take one of the Optional Tours before all meet for a Farewell BBQ.

Note – primary suppliers to the retail liquor industry (e.g. liquor producers and distributors) are only eligible to be involved in the ALSA Conference if they are ALSA Corporate Partner Members.
