

Compulsory Responsible Service of Alcohol Certification SITHFAB009A

Compulsory Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) Certification training course provides liquor stores, hotel, bar and club staff with the knowledge and awareness required to responsibly sell, serve and supply alcohol within licensed venues in NSW.

All RLDF Training Courses are delivered by fully accredited trainers with industry-based knowledge and skills. We are committed to providing the highest standards of training in our fully equipped training facilities, in an atmosphere that enables participants to achieve the best possible outcome.

Timing:

The Compulsory RSA Certification is a competency based six (6) hour program with a Statement of Attainment issued on successful completion.

The course covers:

1. Identifying the context of Responsible Service of Alcohol
2. Legislative framework for Responsible Service of Alcohol
3. The Impact of Alcohol Abuse
4. Implementing Responsible Service of Alcohol strategies
5. Measuring the outcomes of Responsible Service of Alcohol on premises

Other Items:

- Signage
- Industry Code of Practice
- The Liquor Act & Liquor Regulations
- Intoxication – Indicators & Offences
- Impacts of Alcohol
- Safe Transport Options
- Responsible promotion of liquor products

TO BOOK YOUR PLACE CALL RLDF – 1300 735 530